2. Transfer of Personal Data to Other Entities

1. Ordinary personal data [name, surname, workplace, official position, contact details (mailing address, phone number, email address)] may be disclosed by Bednarz to:
 - a) entities providing external services to Bednarz (including IT service providers, accountants, couriers, etc.);
 - b) public administration bodies, state authorities, and courts within the scope of their statutory activities.
2. Personal data are processed at Bednarz's registered office. Personal data are not transferred to countries outside the European Union. In the event that it is necessary to transfer personal data to third countries outside the territory of the European Union as part of the provision of services by Bednarz, Bednarz will take appropriate measures to ensure the security of the processing of your personal data.
3. Bednarz, in cooperation with its suppliers and entities providing legal, tax, and accounting advisory services, may, based on the concluded agreement, entrust the processing of personal data to the aforementioned entities in order to perform the services provided to you. However, in each case, these entities will be obliged to maintain the confidentiality of your personal data and process them in accordance with the provisions on personal data protection and the relevant instructions from Bednarz.

3. Confidentiality and Conditions for Personal Data Protection

1. Bednarz declares that it has appropriate technical and organizational measures in place to ensure that the processing of entrusted personal data protects the rights of individuals whose data are processed and complies with the requirements of applicable personal data protection law, in particular Article 32 of the GDPR.
2. Bednarz declares that the processing of personal data referred to in the GDPR will be carried out under conditions that safeguard the data against unauthorized access, using the "clean desk and screen" policy, and the presence of unauthorized persons in the premises where personal data are processed is permitted only in the presence of a person authorized to process the data and under conditions ensuring the security of personal data processing.
3. Bednarz will inform you of any circumstances that may or may have an impact on the security of the entrusted personal data or its assessment, as well as on the exercise of rights by individuals whose data are processed.
4. The limitations specified in 1 -3 above do not apply to information and personal data that:

- a) are or will be made publicly available (in a manner other than through unauthorized disclosure of such information directly or indirectly by Bednarz);
- b) are or have become known to Bednarz without any confidentiality restrictions;
- c) have been or will be acquired or developed by Bednarz independently, i.e., without a breach of the confidentiality of the personal data provided by you;
- d) are disclosed at the request of a public authority if the obligation to disclose arises from the law, and Bednarz will immediately notify you of such request, provided that it is lawful.

4. Personal Data Protection

If you need more information or have any questions regarding the processing of your personal data, please contact Mateusz Bednarz directly at the email address: mateusz.bednarz@bednarzlaw.pl.

5. Rights related to the processing of your personal data

1. Bednarz hereby informs you of the rights you have in relation to the processing of your personal data as specified in the GDPR:
 - a) The right to request access to your personal data (including confirmation of whether they are being processed and obtaining information such as the purposes, sources, categories of data processed, and the storage period). This also includes the right to receive a free copy of your personal data (for any additional copies requested by the individual to whom the data relates, a reasonable fee may be charged to cover administrative costs).
 - b) The right to rectify or supplement personal data, which requires you to provide Bednarz with a written statement regarding the correction or supplementation of your personal data.
 - c) The right to request the erasure of personal data ("right to be forgotten"), which applies if the collected data is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, consent to its processing has been withdrawn, or there are no other legal grounds for its processing.
 - d) The right to restrict the processing of data, which applies if you contest the accuracy of the personal data for a period that allows Bednarz to verify the accuracy of such data.
 - e) The right to object to the processing of personal data, which applies based on your particular situation, provided that the legal requirements for such a request are met.
 - f) The right to data portability, including the right to receive your personal data that you have provided to us in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.
 - g) The right to withdraw consent to the processing of data, where the withdrawal of consent does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.
 - h) The right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority - the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection (Stawki 2, 00-193 Warsaw) if you believe that the processing of personal data by Bednarz violates the provisions of the GDPR.
